

When citing information from a single source, which is the case here, put the name of the author in parenthesis along with the page number the first time you cite the author. Every time after that, only include the page number of the quote.

Answer the following questions about your summer reading book. Be sure to answer all parts of each question completely.

Title of the Novel: _____

Author: _____

1. Identify the viewpoint character. From what point of view is the novel written? Is it first person, second person, third person limited, or third person omniscient? Give textual evidence from the novel to demonstrate the point of view. Be sure to cite this in MLA format.

Viewpoint character:

Point of view:

Textual Support:

2. What is the main setting of the story? Does it play an important role in the story? Explain why or why not. Use textual evidence to illustrate the setting of the story.

The Main Setting:

Textual Support:

3. A dynamic character is one who changes from the beginning to the end of the novel. Who is the most dynamic character in the novel? Give two examples from the novel that demonstrate how this character changed. This does not require direct quotes, but rather, reference specific plot evidence that demonstrates change.

The most dynamic character:

Examples from the novel to demonstrate the change in the character:

4. What was the crisis of the story? What was the point of the story with the highest emotional intensity? Think about plot: exposition, rising action, crisis, falling action, and resolution.

5. What is the major theme of the novel? What message do you think the author was trying to send through the voices and actions of his/her characters? Give an example from the story that demonstrates the theme. Give one quote and one event that support the theme of the story.

6. Did you like the book or not? Give some reasons as to why or why not.

7. If you could ask the author any questions, what would they be? If you could give the author any advice on their novel what would it be? Would you change any part of the book?

Use EasyBib to create a Work Cited page, which will be the last page of your assignment.

The book that I read was the book that I chose. I read the entire book.

Your signature

Date